

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the city of Snoqualmie, Washington is committed to ensuring the safety and security of all those living in and visiting Snoqualmie; and

WHEREAS, fire is a serious public safety concern both locally and nationally, and homes are the locations where people are at greatest risk from fire; and

WHEREAS, the majority of U.S. fire deaths (4 out of 5) occur at home each year; and

WHEREAS, Snoqualmie residents should identify places in their home where fires can start and eliminate those hazards; and

WHEREAS, working smoke alarms cut the risk of dying in reported home fires in half; and

WHEREAS, Snoqualmie residents should install smoke alarms in every sleeping room, outside each separate sleeping area, and on every level of the home; and

WHEREAS, Snoqualmie residents should listen for the sound of the smoke alarm and when it sounds respond by going outside immediately to the designated meeting place;

WHEREAS, Snoqualmie residents who have planned and practiced a home fire escape plan are more prepared and will therefore be more likely to survive a fire; and

WHEREAS, Snoqualmie's first responders are dedicated to reducing the occurrence of home fires and home fire injuries through prevention and protection education; and

WHEREAS, Snoqualmie residents are responsive to public education measures and are able to take action to increase their safety from fire, especially in their homes; and

WHEREAS, the 2021 Fire Prevention Week theme, "Look. Listen. Learn. Be aware – fire can happen anywhere™" effectively serves to remind us that we need to take personal steps to increase our safety from fire.

THEREFORE, I, Matthew R. Larson, Mayor of Snoqualmie do hereby proclaim October as Fire Prevention Month throughout this city, and I urge all the people of Snoqualmie to be aware of their surroundings, look for available ways out in the event of a fire or other emergency, respond when the smoke alarm sounds by exiting the building immediately, and to support the many public safety activities and efforts of Snoqualmie's fire and emergency services during Fire Prevention Month 2021.

Given under my hand and official seal of the City of Snoqualmie this 11th day of October 2021

Matthew R. Larson, Mayor
